Dear Friends,

I heartily endorse John Rosemond's Parenting By the Book. I rejoice at how God is using it so effectively to renew families across our nation. The material deeply touched not only my congregation, but also my own family as I have applied the parenting principles to our three children. Life in our home has not been the same since.

John Rosemond is a most engaging and entertaining speaker and you will find your time with him fun, challenging and life changing. As a pastor of over twenty years I find the material biblically solid, drawing it's teaching directly from Scripture.

You will definitely find John Rosemond's Parenting By the Book a powerful tool for touching and transforming the lives of your congregation.
